

SAMUELE PETRUCCELLI

516.725.1291 | samuele.petrucelli@aya.yale.edu | www.linkedin.com/in/sampetrucelli

Education

Yale School of Public Health

New Haven, CT

Master of Public Health, Health Policy

May 2026

- Relevant coursework: longitudinal multilevel analysis, quantitative methods for infectious diseases, AI for healthcare.

Boston University

Boston, MA

Bachelor of Arts, Economics; Bachelor of Science, Journalism

May 2024

- Relevant coursework: economics of risk, monetary theory and banking, health economics, narrative journalism.

Applied Research and Analytics

Make Deaths Count

New Haven, CT

Researcher and Manuscript First-Author

January 2026 – Present

- Evaluated interview techniques to assign cause of death without physicians for an international nonprofit.
- Conducted a literature review for peer-reviewed publication to show social autopsy's value in high-income countries.

Public Health Informatics Computational and Operations Research

NY, NY

Research Analyst

July 2024 – April 2025

- Published three manuscripts in peer-reviewed journals. Tested compartment and Monte Carlo Markov Chain models.
- Organized 5 project statuses across 3 labs. Co-authored and led submission of 2 final reports to USAID and the NIH.
- Identified causality between environmental drivers and populations' health. Presented results to lab senior leadership.

The Boston Business Journal

Boston, MA

Business and policy analyst/reporter

June 2023 – August 2023

- Published over 40 reports that leveraged 10-K, 10-Q, and 8-K disclosures, GIS data, and local policy systems.
- First-place award for a timely report using census data. Expanded coverage of labor markets by interviewing leaders.
- Explained how systemic policy goals can intersect with business incentives. Named firms' opportunities and risks.

WBUR

Boston, MA

Education Reporter

January 2023 – May 2023

- Built a searchable database with 10 years of records across 395 districts to explain statewide education trends.
- Explained public policy to a live audience of 800,000. Brainstormed ideas with management for a more agile team.

Strategy and Policy Analysis

The Boston Globe

Boston, MA

Globe Correspondent

January 2022 – July 2022

- Arbitrated real estate developer's legal compliance by obtaining government records. Attended 5 legislative sessions.

The Dorchester Reporter

Boston, MA

Special to the Reporter

January 2022 – May 2022

- Interviewed a former U.S. Treasury official and businessowners in Spanish to visualize 7.3% CPI YoY increase.

The Island Now

Nassau County, NY

General Assignment Reporter

May 2021 – October 2021

- Published over 60 articles in 13 weeks. Strengthened oversight of local and education officials' public statements.
- Maintained relationships with statewide sources to explain zoning rules, COVID protocol, and business deals.
- Negotiated agreements with sources to verify sensitive newsworthy information. Set goals for better UI experience.

Leadership and Awards

SBT Flow Systems

New Haven, CT

Startup Co-Founder

September 2024 – Present

- Designed and pitched a low-cost sustainable health initiative to a panel of 5 Yale venture capital investors.
- Used a strategic framework to problem-solve a rural irrigation challenge and chart an early market access plan.

Asociación Nacional de Periodistas Hispanos

New England

Professional organization member

September 2024 – Present

- Organized meetups to recruit 5 members. Strategized initiative on Hispanic news literacy. Won 2 professional awards.

The Daily Free Press

Boston, MA

Associate Editor

September 2020 – December 2021 & January 2024 – April 2024

- Set data journalism as a strategic initiative. Negotiated confidentiality agreements to prove illegal brokers fees.
- Researched civil engineering records to innovate on transit reporting. Visualized weather forecasts with a clean UI.

Skills

Technical: STATA, R, SPSS, Excel, Tableau, Flourish. Language: Fluent Spanish and Italian. Sports: Soccer (LB).